Mainframe Recordings is celebrating its 100th release, and we're overly happy to be joined by North Base, certainly one of Drum & Bass music's most vibrant outfits these days.

North Base has been joining forces with DisasZt, renowned for his ruffneck trademark sound paired with broad musical versatility. 'This Life' is a soaring vocal tune incorporating ethereal pads and classic drum breaks, capturing feelings of urban solitude in a both mentally and physically moving way.

'This Life' is released in vanguard of Mainframe's MFR100 jubilee album (to be expected in May 2018). Stay tuned for more...
